THE HEART OF INDIA

India is a multi-faceted country, and as Orange DMC turns ten, we continue to be mesmerised by all that it has to offer!

Peel back the layers and you will discover an awe-inspiring array of communities, cultures and traditions that are deeply entrenched in the social ecosystem. In places like Orissa and Madhya Pradesh, several tribes continue to co-exist, living in harmony with nature and the animal world, while adapting to modern life. At the same time, history is being resurrected and reinvented in an avatar which embraces both the future and the past in places like Bhopal and Bhubhaneshwar. While ancient temples stand tall in destinations like Khajuraho and Puri, the jungle's roots run deep in the jungles of Kanha, Bandhavgarh, Pench, Simlipal and Chilika.

Are you a foodie? If so, then these parts of the country are simply heaven — exquisite cuisine, a variety of unusual ingredients, and a culinary tradition that goes back for centuries. World class hotels, erstwhile palaces, chic jungle lodges, and a genuine welcome await your arrival. Discover the best kept secrets that keep the heart of India beating longer and stronger than ever before.

Best Regards,
